

Notice of Public Forums
For
Maine's Draft Transition Plan
For Complying with New Home and Community Based Services (HCBS)
Rule for Medicaid Waiver Services
And
Discussion of the Biennial Plan for Services to Adults with Intellectual Disabilities & Autism

When: Friday, December 19, 2014

- 10:00am – 11:30am – Draft Transition Plan for HCBS
- 12:00 pm – 1:30 pm – Discussion of the Biennial Plan for Services to Adults
With Intellectual Disabilities or Autism

Updated Information**

Please note: We have added a call-in number for people who may not be able to travel to one of the locations listed below:

1 (800) 866-6482

Where: Five video conferencing locations at University of Maine campuses at:

- University of Maine at Augusta - Katz Library Room; Room 5, 20 Jewett Dr., Augusta
- University of Maine at Presque Isle - Pullen Hall Room 115; 181 Main St.,
Presque Isle
- University of Southern Maine - 133 Wishcamper; 88 Bedford St, Portland
- University of Maine at Orono - 126 Barrows Hall ; intersection of Long and Flagstaff, Orono
- University of Maine at Fort Kent – Grindle Conference Rm, Cyr Hall ;23
University Dr., Fort Kent

The Department request that any interested party requiring special accommodations to attend the forum contact Deb Caron at 207- 287-4242 before December 17, 2014.

As of December 15, 2014, a copy of the Draft HCBS Transition Plan can be viewed and printed from the Office of Aging and Disability Services at

<http://www.maine.gov/dhhs/oads/initiatives/HomeandCommunityBasedServicesRegulation2014.htm>